

Focus areas

Child survival and development >

Evidence-based child survival, nutrition and environmental interventions

Basic education and gender equality >

Free, compulsory quality education for all children

SEARCH

Sport for development >

Latest news, initiatives, partnerships, reports and country examples

HIV/AIDS and children >

Mother-to-Child Transmission, Paediatric Treatment, Prevention, Children Affected by AIDS

Child protection >

Protecting children from violence, exploitation and abuse

Policy advocacy and partnerships >

Data, policy analysis leveraging resources, child participation

Pandemic Influenza >

Pandemic threat remains. Communication strategies a vital part of the response.

Topics

Early childhood >

The best start in life, survival, growth and early learning

How we work

Adolescents and youth >

Participation, HIV Prevention among young people, Adolescent Girls Project, Xpression

Communication for development >

Improving the health, nutrition and other key social outcomes for children and their families

UNICEF in emergencies >

Countries in crisis, emergency assistance, funding appeals and donor updates

Health >

Preventive care, health in the home and community, disease prevention

Evaluation and good practices >

Learning lessons from field experience

Gender equality >

The empowerment of women and girls and the pursuit of gender equality: the way to a sustainable and just society

Statistics and monitoring >

Data on the situation of children and women, for tracking progress and focusing action

Immunization >

Basic cost-effective services to save children's lives

Nutrition >

Breastfeeding, adequate food, healthy diet, vitamin and nutrient deficiencies

Supplies and Logistics >

For UNICEF emergency and development programmes, Procurement Services for partners

Research >

The Innocenti Research Centre studies the changing situation of children

Rights and results >

Effective programmes of work based on realizing children's and women's rights

Water, sanitation and hygiene >

Ensuring that a child's environment has safe water, sanitation and hygiene.

Situation Analysis >

How UNICEF supports strengthening evidence for achieving child-focused and gender-sensitive policies, laws and budgets.

Social and economic policy >

UNICEF's work on the impact that policies in social protection, migration and budgeting have on child poverty

Life skills >

Life skills-based education for HIV/AIDS prevention, and promoting health, human rights and peace