'The Hole in Our Gospel'

'The Hole in Our Gospel' by Rich Stearns, president of World Vision U.S., is a story of how this CEO faced his own struggle to obey God, whatever the cost, and his passionate call for Christians to change the world by actively living out their faith. Believing the "good news" to be more than a private transaction between God and us, Stearns challenges readers with this question: What does God expect of us? Order a copy today. ## The Gospel Quest - Campaign

This breakaway campaign, based on The Hole in Our Gospel by World Vision U.S. president Rich Stearns, is designed to engage the people in your church with one central question: "What does God expect of us?" With radical, eye-opening insights and soul-inspiring truths, this campaign will challenge and energize church members, small groups, and leadership teams. To learn more about the campaign click here.

World Vision eNews

World Vision eNews is a monthly e-mail newsletter that provides updates on our ministry around the world. Each issue contains compelling stories featuring the children and families we serve through disaster response, child sponsorship, advocacy, and community and regional development. Subscribe today to begin receiving eNews in your inbox.

World Vision Magazine

World Vision Magazine, a quarterly publication, affirms people responding to God's call to care for the poor by providing information, inspiration, and opportunities for action, linking them with children and families in nearly 100 countries where World Vision works.

Now you can also read World Vision Magazine online! Read individual articles, or view issues in Adobe Acrobat (PDF) format.

'World Vision Report' Weekly Public Radio Program

The World Vision Report is a weekly radio program that captures the human drama behind global issues and events. Hosted by Peggy Wehmeyer, former ABC World News Tonight correspondent, the World Vision Report can be heard online and has aired on hundreds of radio stations, such as WBUR (Boston), KPBS (San Diego), KXOT (Seattle), and WBEZ (Chicago).

World Vision Reports and Research

World Vision publishes reports and research on topics ranging from global poverty and child protection to conflict resolution and disaster response. Our research draws on the experience, observations and expertise of World Vision field staff working in a variety of countries and cultural contexts.

World Vision News

World Vision News, a quarterly publication, keeps donors informed of how their dollars are being used around the world to assist the sick and those living in poverty. Now, you can read it online. Just click on the cover to see this year's World Vision News.

Books and other resources

World Vision Resources, the book and educational publishing ministry of World Vision, seeks to educate Christians about global poverty, inspire them to social justice, and equip them with innovative resources to make a difference in the world. By developing biblically-based curriculum and materials for educators and ministry leaders on the causes and consequences of global poverty, World Vision Resources supports the organizational mandate to move the church in the United States to more fully embrace its biblical responsibility to serve the poor. Materials can be purchased through World Vision Resources, and free downloadable educational resources are also available.
